

Ackworth School

VACANCY FOR EYFS PRACTITIONER FROM SEPTEMBER 2022

Ackworth School, a co-educational boarding and day school, was founded in 1779 by the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). It maintains its ethos and traditions and is still governed by the Society although only a small number of pupils and staff are from the Quaker tradition. The school is academically non-selective and provides an excellent range of facilities and extra-curricular opportunities. The school is a member of both HMC and Society of Heads.

We are looking to appoint a caring and enthusiastic EYFS Practitioner to join our friendly and committed Nursery team, within Coram House, from September 2022 or soon thereafter. The working hours are 10am – 6pm (Monday and Friday) 40 hours.

The candidate must hold a relevant level 3 qualification and have sufficient experience at this level.

Ackworth School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff to share this commitment. Applicants should also be in sympathy with the Quaker Ethos. The successful applicant will be expected to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including the completion of an enhanced DBS / ISA disclosure and reference checks with former employers.

Salary starts from £15,228 based on 34 teaching weeks plus 4.3 weeks holiday.
(£20,730 FTE)

Candidates are required to complete a school application form as part of the process. This can be downloaded from the website at www.ackworthschool.com. Please return completed application forms, together with a covering letter for the attention of Joanne Colley, HR Manager at jobs@ackworthschool.com

The closing date for applications is Tuesday 14th June and interviews will be held the week after.