

SPECIALIST LEARNING MENTORS – APRIL 2023

Ackworth School, a co-educational boarding and day school, was founded in 1779 by the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). It maintains its ethos and traditions and is still governed by the Society. The school is academically non-selective and provides an excellent range of facilities and extra-curricular opportunities. The school is a member of both HMC and Society of Heads.

The Autism Resource is a purpose developed specialist provision, within the mainstream school, and will take around 20 pupils in the academic year 2022-2023. Pupils are generally between the ages of 4-19 years of age.

A number of opportunities have arisen for suitably qualified, enthusiastic and empathetic individuals to join a team supporting pupils on the autistic spectrum. Applicants must be qualified to at least NVQ 3 or Diploma level and have previous experience supporting learning for pupils with a diagnosis of autism or a related condition who require one to one support. The Resource is very much part of our Quaker ethos.

You will help to deliver an individualised curriculum as well as providing a nurturing and therapeutic environment to meet a range of needs including social, emotional, communication and learning difficulties.

The successful candidate must have experience of working with children and young people with a range of learning needs. You will have a specialist level of knowledge and experience of the areas of difference experienced by people with autism spectrum conditions and be able to demonstrate a working understanding of how these needs impact upon learning.

The role is a full time term time only position for 34 teaching weeks. The salary for the role on this basis is £17,034 (FTE - £22,428).
