

TEACHING ASSISTANT (SENIOR SCHOOL) – JANUARY 2023

Ackworth School, a co-educational boarding and day school, was founded in 1779 by the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). It maintains its ethos and traditions, and is still governed by the Society, although only a small number of pupils are from the Quaker tradition. The school is academically non-selective and provides an excellent range of facilities and extra-curricular opportunities. The school is a member of both HMC and the Society of Heads.

We are incredibly proud of the inclusive nature of our school. This is, in some part, down to our Quaker ethos. The School also has a specialist Autism Resource that we are equally as proud of and this is staffed separately by a group of extremely skilled and dedicated staff.

As a whole school we are incredibly focussed on the achievements of all of our pupils to ensure that everyone makes progress and reaches their potential.

We are now seeking to appoint one Teaching Assistant to join the team of three within Learning Support. They are expected to support pupils on a one-to-one basis in mainstream lessons to ensure they are able to access learning in the same way as their peers, with the correct guidance and intervention, and dependent entirely on their learning need.

In return we offer:

- a competitive salary of £14,775 (£19,453FTE) based on 35 hours and 34 teaching weeks
- generous fee remission of up to 50% for the children of our staff.
- all food and refreshments during the working day.
- access to sports facilities, new fitness suite and pool.
- free on-site parking.
- flexible pension and health benefits.
- a supportive and friendly environment based on the Quaker ethos of the school.
- a committed parent community which plays an active part in the school.
- a beautiful working location in an ideal location within easy travelling distance of the main centres of Sheffield, Leeds, Doncaster and York.
